COMMISSION CONTEXT

Portlaoise was unveiled as one of the successful towns to be allocated funding under the Urban Regeneration and Development Fund (URDF), as part of Project Ireland 2040 in respect of the development of a new Cultural Quarter in Portlaoise, and also the development of initiatives which will see Portlaoise becoming the first Low Carbon town in Ireland.

As part of 'Portlaoise 2040 - A Vision for Portlaoise', a number of enhancements and renewal projects are underway within and around the town centre. This roundabout is positioned on one of the gateway roads into the centre of Portlaoise and therefore placement of this artwork will be visibly on entering and departing the town of Portlaoise.

Portlaoise has many historical and cultural themes that are unknown to many of the visitors, denizens or tourists to County Laois or the town of Portlaoise itself.

Laois County Council and the Portlaoise Public Art Committee are keen to use some of these themes in a contemporary way to celebrate but also to highlight their importance to life as we know it today.

Various approaches and levels of public engagement are both important and welcomed as part of this Per Cent for Art project. Collaborative partnerships are also welcome, should artists wish to partner with another artist for this project.

The brief asks the applying artist/s to consider the following in expressing their interest in this commission:

- Focus on the historical but also the current cultural context of Portlaoise.

- The Gaelic (O'Moores and Seven Septs), Medical (Bartholemew Mosse and Jacobs) and Aviation (James Fitzmaurice and The Aldritt's Family) Heritage of Portlaoise.
- Be willing to take part in Public Engagement in the process of project development.
- Focus on the creation of an engaging and 'living' artwork for all the citizens and visitors to Portlaoise.
- Consider the relevance of the artwork now and in the future.
- Consider the durability, health and safety and the requirement for a low maintenance artwork.
